Sell Yourself

Soon, you'll know...
DARK TALES
ONLY TO READ AT HOME

Have to get rid of all your ex's stuff but don't want to go through the rigmarole of eBay?

Now, thank heavens, there's an easier way to unload unwanted items. Sellstuffeasy.com takes the hassle out making a profit off your dodgy roommate's Jimmy Choo collection.

Instead of managing items yourself, Sellstuffeasy.com allows you drop off stuff by the bag load. The site, which bills itself as the only UK-based eBay pick-up service, will then do all the hard work.

They will do the research to figure out what it's worth, photograph your items, upload the info on to eBay, handle all customer complaints and then ship everything to whoever is silly enough to want all your empty perfume bottles. What's better, they then pay the cash directly into your bank account.

For those who are seriously lazy, Sellstuffeasy.com will even pick larger items up, making it much easier to get a boyfriend's car "towed" and sold the next time he's foolish enough to visit Stringfellows.

Ah, revenge is sweet, especially when there's money involved.
